

Business Modeling & Integration DTF

March 24-28, 2014, Reston, Virginia

Agenda

Monday March 24, BMI Plenary Session

Morning – The future of SBVR

This session will be available as audio on Skype. Those who want to listen-in should make their Skype names and email addresses available in advance (fred.a.cummins@gmail.com) so we can connect to them and send them the presentations.

- 9:00 Ed Barkmeyer on Whither SBVR: Insights for SBVR 2.0 from Tool Development
- 10:00 Break
- 10:20 Donald Chapin on Perspectives on the Future of SBVR
- 11:20 SBVR as a Meta-Meta-Model: A Language for Specification of Modeling Languages, Fred Cummins
- 12:00 Lunch

Afternoon

- 1:00 Process and Information Modeling and Integration in the Oil and Gas Industry, Claude Baudoin and David Feineman of BP
- 2:00 Break
- 2:30 BMI Roadmap discussion. See potential initiatives outlined at <https://docs.google.com/spreadsheet/ccc?key=0AgKdn8LxSqPldDNNQzRJRWp0UlpYQ05LdEZhNmZsWmc&usp=sharing>

Thursday Morning March 27, BMI Plenary Session

This session will be available as audio on Skype. Those who want to listen-in should make their Skype names and email addresses available in advance (fred.a.cummins@gmail.com) so we can connect to them and send them the presentations

- 9:00 Introduction to ArchiMate, JD Baker
This session is in anticipation of a request for RFC at the next meeting
- 10:30 LEADing Practice - When to apply Best Practice and when to apply LEADing Practice, Mark von Rosing, LEADing Practice Founder and chairman, Global University Alliance

