

Business Architecture Canada: Government Reference Model Workshop

Thursday 27 September 2018

8:45– 9:15 am	Government Reference Model Workshop: Goals, Background & Agenda
Abstract	Session overviews reference model value proposition, usage context, sample content, and workshop goals.
09:15–9:45 am	Reference Model Mapping Principles & Guidelines – Crash Review
Abstract	Session provides mapping session guidelines and principles and shares reference model content for breakout teams.
09:45–10:00 am	Reference Model Logistics & Breakout Team Assignments
Abstract	Session identifies breakout teams based on government subsectors and assigns breakout session leads.
10:00–10:20 am	Morning Break
10:20 am–Noon	Capability Mapping Breakout Sessions: By Government Subsector
Abstract	Breakout teams articulate capabilities by government subsector, including revenue, public works, procurement, agriculture, homeland protection, defense, procurement, health, and others to be determined.
Noon–1:00 pm	Lunch
1:00–1:45 pm	Capability Mapping Results Review
Abstract	Breakout teams share capability mapping definition and decomposition results and exchange feedback.
1:45–2:30 pm	Value Stream Mapping Breakout Sessions: By Government Subsector
Abstract	Breakout teams align based on government subsectors to define business architecture value propositions, stakeholders, and related value streams.
2:30–2:50 pm	Afternoon Refreshment Break
2:50– 4:00 pm	Value Stream Mapping Breakout Sessions: By Government Subsector
Abstract	Breakout teams continue government subsector value stream and related stakeholder definition work.

4:00–5:00 pm	Value Stream Mapping Results Review
Abstract	Breakout teams share value stream definition results, discuss alignment to capabilities, and exchange critique.
5:00–5:20 pm	Review Lessons Learned & Discuss Post-Workshop Next Steps
Abstract	Session discusses options for moving forward and sharing and maturing the results of the working sessions long-term.